Director's Note

It's great to be back in the theater and being a part of FROZEN KIDS and FROZEN JR.! Between the original animated film version or the Broadway musical, it's hard to keep the Oscar-winning song "Let It Go" from entering into your heart and home. These adaptations of the Broadway musical brings Elsa, Anna, and the magical land of Arendelle to life onstage. Through the relationship of Anna and Elsa, audiences learn the power of family and forgiveness. We learn that love is the most powerful magic of all. The themes of this story encourage us to celebrate our differences that make us truly unique. In the words of composer Kristen Anderson-Lopez in her Oscar winner acceptance speech to her daughters "...in hopes that you never let fear or shame keep you from celebrating the unique people that you are."

I am always amazed at the talent our young actors bring to the stage. I am sure you will walk out of this theater proud of the entire cast and in awe of the energy in their performance. You will be humming these songs for days and you'll find yourself smiling when thinking about these wonderful young performers. That is what a community theatre experience is all about! Enjoy the show!
